Well done, enjoy reading your new book!

Every child who has 5 days reading recorded in their book will have their name on a raffle ticket entered into the draw and have a chance of winning a new book!

You can help them by encouraging them to read with you each day.

The Prizes

This week's stars of the week are:

Star of the week!

Each week, in our celebration collective worship, a star of the week from each class is presented with a certificate to celebrate their achievements.

All week, teachers carefully watch out for children who always follow the school values, are always polite and helpful and who are always working hard!
